

ChromeVox Screen Reader

- To be used on the Chromebook. Directions on how to use it..
- Enables people with visual impairments to use the Chrome Operating System via spoken feedback or braille.

High Contrast Mode

- For users with light sensitivity or eye strain.
- Watch this video to learn how to use it.

Highlight Cursor and Text

- Add a highlighted circle around the cursor
- Add a text caret when typing
- Watch this video to learn how to use it.

Dyslexic Support

- OpenDyslexic Font for Chrome Extension: an easier font to read.
- Install the Thomas Jockin Font for Docs, Sheets and Slides

Screen Magnification

- Zoom in on the top 1/3 of the screen or the entire screen.
- Watch this video to learn how to use each one.

Select-to-speak

- Selected text is highlighted and read aloud
- Watch this video to learn how to use it.

Automatic Clicks

- Hover over items to click or scroll - helpful for users with mobility impairments.
- Click here to enable and learn about the actions you can perform.

On-screen Keyboard

- Type using a mouse or pointer device.
- Directions on how to use it.

Chromebook accessibility tools for distance learning